Minutes for Arlington BID Meeting
September 16, 2026

Attendance: Danny Petrizzo, Jacob Reckess, Tim Rooke, Ann Shershin, Dr. Adam Silverman, Toyna Speed, and Jon Vincitore.

Meeting called to order at 9:03 a.m.

Minutes: Jon Vincitore made a motion to accept July and August's minutes, Danny Petrizzo seconded the motion, and the motion passed, 6-0.

Events: The Street Fair is next Saturday. The Fair is sold out with 99 to 100 venders and a variety of food options. The street is being renumbered. The tent was been donated. There will be porta potties in 2 locations. There are 4 musical acts and Japanese drum and karate demonstrations. The Street Fair is $1500 under budget. The Farmers' Market has a Vassar Jazz trio that would like to play during the market. Vassar is also having a classic bike show on the lawn during the market. The kids yoga on the lawn didn't take off and the rain didn't help attendance.

Guida: Guida is open and did a good job with the renovation. They are interested in having outdoor seating.

Governance: The IRS 1023 form to apply for 501(c)(3) status is nearly complete, just need to add the finance information and complete Schedule E. We need to set a meeting for the governance committee.

Election: Liz Torres Zocchi is running to fill the opening on the BID board for the business tenants and Jon Vincitore and Ross Hardisty are running for reelection as property owners. The annual meeting will be at the next meeting, October 21, 2026. The ballots will be mailed and emailed out next week.

Bob Legacy Bench Dedication: We will dedicate Bob Legacy's bench at the last Farmers' Market on October 29 at 4:30 to 5:00 pm.

Landscaping: The landscaper will be putting in mums for a small extra charge. They are continuing to weed.

Website: Tonya Speed would like switch the website over to Square Space. She finds Wordpress more difficult to use.

Meeting adjourned at 9:42 a.m.
